Abstract: This paper discusses the concept of Waiiz and use of it in theology and law. We will see that the understanding of Wajiz is derived from the theologians of Islam and from the Shariah jurists as well. It was a form of narration that was used mainly in the medieval scholars and jurists. Ushul al-Figh. PDF - The Basic Principles Of Shari'a - published on 2016. [Samples of Abu Hanifah's Legal Opinion...]. This is a legal opinion of Abu Hanifah ibn Maajah relating to the Islamic legal concept of Wajiz. It is written in Abu Hanifah's own language. Its meaning is: Once the people of Medina made a decision in the matter of the idols of the citizens that they should be destroyed. A group of scholars realized that they were wrong. They realized that it was a personal decision to be taken by the believers according to the popular opinion. They asked the Divine Lawgiver to decree a decision in the matter for the guidance of the people. Then the Custodian of the Two Ways said that he (Abu Hanifa) should (of his own accord) give his legal opinion on the matter. Aleksej Ćuba, Željka Čačić Gane. Bassac Books, 2009.
